Dear Mr. Amos:

Thank you for your letter of November 19, 2003, addressed to my predecessor, the Honourable Wayne Easter, regarding your safety. I apologize for the delay in responding.

If you have any concerns about your personal safety, I can only suggest that you immediately contact the police of local jurisdiction. In addition, any evidence of criminal activity should be brought to their attention since the police are in the best position to evaluate the information and take action as deemed appropriate.

I trust that this information is satisfactory.

Yours sincerely,

OIG Complaint Number: C04-01448

Dear Mr. Amos:

We received your letter on November 21, 2003. We will review the information carefully to determine the appropriate action; however, our office will not be able to provide you with any information as to the action taken.

In general, privacy and law enforcement concerns prohibit the Office of Inspector General (OIG) from disclosing information from its system of records to third parties, including the individual who made the original allegation. Often, this is a source of some frustration to those who contact us, but it is unavoidable in light of the Privacy Act (5 U.S.C. §552a) and the regulations promulgated thereunder. For this and other reasons, it is the policy of the OIG that once we receive an allegation of fraud or other misconduct, no information concerning the allegation may be released to any third party, except to other law enforcement agencies. Individuals named in allegations received by this office are entitled to the same privacy rights that you or any other citizen might expect from us.

Thank you for bringing this matter to the attention of the OIG.

Sincerely,

Dear Mr. Amos:

I am writing in response to voicemail messages you left for Walter Ricciardi and Philip Koski, employees in the Commission's Boston District Office, on December 22, 2004. In those messages you indicated that you may seek testimony from Mr. Ricciardi and Mr. Koski in a criminal trial. Mr. Ricciardi and Mr. Koski would be able to testify only if the General Counsel authorized their testimony. See 17 C.F.R. 200.735-3(b)(7). At this time, the General Counsel has not authorized their testimony because Mr. Ricciardi and Mr. Koski could not provide any relevant non-expert, non-privileged, factual testimony. Indeed, they do not have personal knowledge of any matters that appear to be relevant to any proceeding against you. Please direct any further communications regarding this matter to me.

Very truly yours,

Dear Mr. Amos,

On behalf of Her Excellency the Right Honourable Adrienne Clarkson, I acknowledge receipt of two sets of documents and CD regarding corruption, one received from you directly, and the other forwarded to us by the Office of the Lieutenant Governor of New Brunswick.

I regret to inform you that the Governor General cannot intervene in matters that are the responsibility of elected officials and courts of Justice in Canada. You already contacted the various provincial authorities regarding your concerns, and these were the appropriate steps to take.

Dear Mr. Amos:

Thank you for your correspondence sharing with me your views on various issues. I have reviewed the many pieces of correspondence that you have included in the package you left at my office. It is my understanding that many of these documents relate to a Trust action in the United States.

As a result, I fail to understand why you feel it is necessary for me to review the extensive and voluminous material that you disclosed to me on this matter. In addition, I do not see how it relates to the operation of the government of the Province of New Brunswick or the Government of Canada.

However, I appreciate the effort you have taken to express your views with me on many issues found within this correspondence. I hope that you can find resolutions to some of your concerns in the near future. If you feel I can be of further assistance on a specific matter involving the Government of Canada, please do not hesitate to contact me. Best wishes.

I acknowledge receipt of your letter dated September 21, 2004 designating me pursuant to s. 6.7(1) of the Provincial Court Act to receive a report from Chief Justice Dumas in this matter.

I received that report on October 4, 2004 and reviewed it. I paid particular attention to the transcripts of the proceedings in the Provincial Court. In my opinion there was no misconduct on the part of Judge Tønning.

Pursuant to s. 6.7(3) of the Provincial Court Act, I therefore recommend that an inquiry not be held.

Dear Mr. Amos:

Senator Kennedy has asked me to acknowledge and thank you for your correspondence regarding your legal issues.

As a United States Senator on the Judiciary committee, it would be inappropriate for him to intervene in matters before the courts or those pertaining to a State's judicial process.

Dear Mr. Amos:

This is in response to your request for assistance with your legal situation.

As you know, I am an attorney by profession and firmly believe that every individual accused of a crime should be given his or her fair day in court.

Our judicial system has been designed to be as free of political influence as possible, so that decisions are made on the basis of facts and evidence alone. As a United States Senator, I therefore do not involve myself in matters which fall to the courts and the judicial system to decide, and I am unable to help you in this matter.

I hope this information will be of help to you.

Dear Mr. Amos:

This is in response to your correspondence to the Office of Professional Responsibility (OPR). In your correspondence you alleged misconduct by various government officials.

OPR has jurisdiction to investigate complaint of misconduct involving Department of Justice (DOJ) attorneys, investigators, or law enforcement personnel, where the complaint relates to the exercise of the authority of an attorney to investigate, litigate, or provide legal advice. However, OPR cannot initiate an investigation of such a complaint unless it is supported by specific factual allegations which, if true, would substantiate a finding of misconduct by a DOJ attorney or law enforcement officer. Based on our review of your correspondence, we found that it did not contain such specific factual allegations. Accordingly, there is no basis on which action by this Office would be warranted. You may wish to consult with private counsel or the nearest Legal Aid Society to determine what legal avenues, if any, may be available to you.

We regret that we can be of no further assistance to you.

Dear Sir;

Re: Your correspondence to James McAvity of Aug. 18, 2004

Your request has been forwarded to my office for response. I have reviewed your request and can advise it is not our practice to give the names of Crowns who appear in Court on any specific date. I am sure you can understand the potential risks involved in this kind of work and we will not carry on practices which may jeopardize the security of our Prosecutors.

As to who was acting for Legal Aid on that date, we do not keep any record of that information for any Court dates.

Your documents have been reviewed and do not contain any references to 'important witnesses to all that was said in Sussex Provincial Court in front of many witnesses on July 29th.

I do note in your materials your response from the Attorney General for New Brunswick dated August 3, 2004 and believe that advice is still appropriate.

RE: Corruption

Hey Fellas,

Please find enclosed exactly the same material served upon Paul Zed before he met Paul Martin at the airport last weekend. The copy of wiretap tape numbered 139 is served upon you in confidence as officers of the court in order that it may be properly investigated. As you review the material it should be painfully obvious to you why I have no respect for your chosen profession of lawyer/politician. I must say that both Mr. Lord and Mr. McKenna were clever to keep some distance from the recent federal election but I don't think it was very wise for Mr. Lord to have me expelled from the Legislature Building for political reasons rather than legal reasons.

I have done as the Sargent at Arms ordered on June 24th and stayed away from the Legislature and waited for it to take its summer break so that no more bullshit about me can be said. I have now delivered this material to your constituency office Mr. Lord so that you may deal with this at a personal level with Mr. Green. I will complain of you Mr. Lord and your friends Mr. Green, Mr. Armstrong and Mr. Burke to court along with the Fredericton Police Dept. and the Sargent at Arms if I do not receive a satisfactory response very quickly and convince me of your ethics and stand with me. I have not heard from the Fredericton Police Dept. thus I suspect that Corporal Ross has done as he threatened and thrown this material in the trash for the benefit of his fellow police officer, Mr. LeBlanc.

Mr. Green may I suggest that you study every word and listen to the CD closely and prepare to argue every word if you disagree with the fact that a fellow Canadian has the right to seek justice and relief for the many wrongs practiced against him. What would you do if the Men in Black had appeared at your door and were willing to take you away to Cuba without counsel because of false allegations were made against you in order to stop you from defending your family's interests? As you can see I have come home to protest these actions in a political and legal fashion. I have done only as the Solicitor General Anne McLellan has suggested and given the evidence to those who claim to have jurisdiction over me. You speak for the Sargent at Arms and the Fredericton Police. They dropped the ball the instant they pulled me outside the building for no reason. They claimed jurisdiction but refused to investigate. I have seen it reported that I had tried to speak from the gallery and the Sargent at Arms falsely claimed that I had attempted to serve someone within the legislature building. Both statements are untrue. I left materials at the door in the custody of the security guard as he requested. I was only looking to find Charles Leblanc in order that he may witness me delivering the enclosed materials to T.J. Burke's office. This was necessary for me to do because as you know most lawyers are reckless with the truth.

I will let your fellow politician/lawyer. Peter McKay, explain to you the reason why that is. However it was no longer necessary to require a witness because the Sargent at Arms and the Fredericton Police had watched me go into 710 Queen St and come out without the material they had just refused after harassing me. They are my witnesses as you are now.

As for you, Mr. McKenna, I expect you and your fellow lawyers at McInnes Cooper to uphold the law and conduct yourselves in a professional manner according to the rules that allow you to practice law for a fee. Don't you think you should act ethically rather quickly and report your newfound knowledge of crime? At the very least I have made you witnesses to my complaints and rest assured I will be asking you many questions in court if the RCMP doesn't ask you first. Mr. McKenna, I read your recent speech about how you likened the actions of federal political leaders to various purebred dogs. I must add my two bits worth to your comments. Those fancy dogs don't hunt like the mangy old mutt that is the guard dog of my little Clan. I don't bark but I am quick to bite. If you turn around you will see me sniffing at your heels. If any lawyer makes one false move, I make every effort to rip his nuts off. Check my work before you call me a liar.

I have followed the money home to the Maritimes. I find that you and many other liberals have been in pursuit of filthy lucre every bit as much as Mr. Mulroney, Mr. Crosbie and their many cohorts. The Maritime Provinces have suffered the most from the many years of political abuse by greedy lawyers and their bosses. Mr. Harper called Maritimers defeatists but he failed to say who was beating us up. Obviously it was federal politicians on both sides of the fence. The last thing Mr. Martin is to me is noble. In my opinion he is a fine example of a very crooked lawyer aspiring to be an adept politician like his daddy. I view your speech about dogs simply as a little dog licking a big dog's nuts in a stylish way in order to win the Alfa male's favor and someday win his position amongst a pack of political thieves. Feel free to argue me after you explain to me real slow how Cardinal Law was legally removed from my complaint and what right the Men in Black had to try to take me away because I am exposing the awful truth about bad acting bankers and Feds. Please don't pretend that you guys don't know a few very well heeled Yankees that have helped you along in your own personal pursuit of happiness. Mr. Tobin got a great job working for an interesting Conservative. Eh? Should Belinda listen to Mr. Mulroney and Mr. Harper or to her new CEO? What do you think? How much time do you think I may have left on the planet for asking such questions as this? What do you think may cause my demise? In the end I will rest assured that someday my ghost will be very vindictive against lawyers that failed to uphold the law. At this point in time it would be very easy for some lawyer to act ethically and become the people's political hero. What say you? Can you trust your legal and political friends to not turncoat and stand with me? Interesting dilemma, eh?

Harper's a lapdog for Bush, Martin's a German shepherd, says former N.B. premier

Canadian Press

To hear former New Brunswick premier Frank McKenna tell it, political debate is going to the dogs.

In Regina, Sask., to help Finance Minister Ralph Goodale win re-election, Mr. McKenna suggested at a rally that opposition leaders offered up a dog's breakfast to voters during the televised leaders debates.

Mr. McKenna described NDP Leader Jack Layton as "an annoying yappy little terrier," Bloc Québécois Leader Gilles Duceppe as a "French poodle," and Conservative Leader Stephen Harper as "a lapdog for George Bush."

Showing his true dogma, Mr. McKenna had nothing but praise Tuesday for his pet choice.

The prime minister, Mr. McKenna said, was "a noble German shepherd standing up for the interests of Canada."

"What does Jack Layton have to lose? He can yap away. No one expects him to win very much . . . No one attacks him because he's irrelevant."

Time to walk the walk, neophyte N.B. politician decides

By Kim Kierans Community News

DAVID AMOS is on the ballot in Fundy, N.B., but the independent candidate didn't campaign for a single vote or accept any donations.

Mr. Amos makes his home in Milton, Mass. That's not a problem because according to the rules he's over 18, a Canadian citizen and not in jail.

The man who calls himself "fun-loving, free-thinking, pig-headed individual" said he decided to run for office because he was dissatisfied with politicians. Politics is new to him. This will be the first time in his 52 years he has ever voted.

"I have no right to criticize unless I offer my name," he told Gisele McKnight of the King's County Record. "It's alright to bitch in the kitchen, but can you walk the walk?"

Mr. Amos traces the roots of his political journey to Sussex in 1987. He said he woke up one morning disillusioned with life. So he packed up his motorcycle shop, paid his bills and hit the road with Annie, his 1952 Panhead motorcycle.

"Annie and I rode around for a while experiencing the milk of human kindness," he said. "This is how you renew your faith in mankind - you help anyone you can, you never ask for anything, but you take what they offer."

For three years he was offered food, a place to sleep, odd jobs and conversation all over North America. After he stopped wandering, he married, fathered a son and daughter and is now what he clais Mr. Mom, a househusband.

He certainly isn't your usual politician. There was no door-to-door campaigning. "I didn't appreciate it when they (politicians) pounded on my door interrupting my dinner," he said. He did take part in all-candidates debates.

Mr. Amos also refused to accept any financial donations. "It's not about money. It goes against what I'm fighting about." Mr. Amos said he just wanted people to begin discussing issues such as tainted blood, exploitation of the Maritimes oil and gas reserves and the free-trade agreement.

7/02/04

Mr. Amos said he hopes everyone, especially young people, will pay attention to the issues and exercise their rights. "Don't necessarily vote for me, but vote."

HELL ANGELS FROM MONTREAL LOOKING FOR CHARLES LEBLANC????

oldmaison@yahoo.com Fredericton

updates from Charles...

Thursday morning, I showed up at the Legislature to use the computer at the Library.

I was told by security that two rough looking individuals walked through the doors and asked for a Charles Leblanc?

They described the guys as rough looking and one of them had a long gray beard with a leather jacket!

At first, I believe it was the Hell Angels coming down from Montreal for a hit on Charles.

Hours later, I seen my bigot buddy Matthew Glenn and he was in front of the Legislature with his blowhorn.

For you people who don't know the bigot? He's the one who started the Anglo Society. I seen him preaching to three young kids and of course I butt in and said - Hey Bigot??? Why don't you bigot go home?

Minutes later, we were approached by two guys and they asked politely -Where can we locate a Charles LeBlanc???

In a matter of seconds, the bigot quickly pointed at me.

I said to myself - Ohhh?? Thanks a lot Bigot!!!

At the end? It was a guy named David Amos and I guess that he's running at an independent in the riding of Fundy Royal. The guy have been living in the area of Boston and he's been following my updates on the internet. I'm telling you that the information highway is a great way to spread the message to the rest of the world!

We talked for around 30 minutes and it was nice to see the bigot, me and David Amos together debating our own little concern issue. We all have our own issues and it's too bad that we cannot unite and fight but that's the way Canadians do things.

They remind silent until the Government really pissed them all and go out and vote the party in power out of office.

updates from Charles

I got a few late stories that I want to bring up.

They had a protest at the Legislature on Wednesday and I would say about 400 people showed up. I made my own little investigation in the crowd and I soon found out that many people from the Northern Part of the Province knew about my protest.

These Acadians read about my protest in L'Acadie Nouvelle! A few weeks earlier, I found out that the English Population from the Miramichi area didn't know about my fight so this shows me that it's so important to have the media covering your issues.

During the protest, I felt like I was in a police

RE: Rampant Public Corruption in Canada and the USA

Hey,

Now that Paul Martin has finally set the date for his confidence vote, methinks its time to pack my bags and head for home. I must raise some serious political hell in the Maritimes before the Commonwealth of Massachusetts does its worst to bankrupt my wife and put my kids on the street before I can expose the rampant public corruption. This is also a very good day to prove within the USA that we are well aware of each other and of my concerns and allegations in order to stress test the integrity of the US Mail. It and the Canada Post have failed me big time in recent years particularly just before the Yankees falsely imprisoned me last year for the benefit of George W. Bush, John Kerry and Paul Martin to name a few. I have no doubt whatsoever each of you dudes know more about me than I do about you. However that does not mean that I have not studied each of you a lot more than the ordinary layman. Just so we are clear, I have no respect for any of you. I know that all of you are as crooked as Chief Mearn, his cops and the lawyers who are coming into our home tomorrow without a warrant. This mail should prove your malice and willingness to support crime and public corruption.

Pursuant to my many emails, phone calls and faxes etc., you will find enclosed as promised exactly the same material I served upon the Solicitor Generals Teddy Olson and landslide Annie McLellan last year before I ran for Parliament last year. The CD of the copy of wiretap tape # 139 is served upon you as officers of the court and FBI Agents in order that it may be properly investigated. Franky got this stuff and more last year. The FBI got even more the year before. Perhaps they should go find the original tapes that the Suffolk County District Attorney and Special Agent in Charge Ken Kaiser have been playing dumb about for far too long. This material was good enough to impeach George W. Bush last year and cause many people to quit or lose their jobs. It is every bit as valuable today and you all know it. Ask the many people whose names can be found within these documents or Franky Boy or Claude Richer, Allan Rock's lawyer buddy in the RCMP about this stuff before you call me a liar. As you all know I am out of jail on bail pending my upcoming criminal trial in front of a jury of my peers. I have the right to remain silent in the USA. I will employ different rights in Canada and say a lot.

What I choose to say while stumping for a seat in Parliament in Canada is of my concern not yours. If you dudes do your jobs here and I act ethically and legally up home with luck the world will be far better off in short order. I have already checked the rules with the people working for Elections Canada. We agree it is perfectly legal for an innocent man to run for Parliament while being prosecuted with false charges in the wrong jurisdiction and venue in the USA. Everybody knows I can secure my personal freedom quicker in a political forum in Canada rather than argue crooked judges in the USA. They have already imprisoned me on bullshit charges without even reading me my rights or telling me why I was in jail. The crooks are not going to have a sudden fit of ethical behavior now without it becoming a matter of political will. We all know it is high time for a change, the sooner the better for the Maritimes as well as the rest of the world. What better politician to argue with than a right wing lawyer named Rob Moore?

As you all no doubt know I have been talking to many people within the UN and have sent many much of my stuff. You all must have laughed as hard as I did when the Cubans were afraid to talk about my stuff. I must agree with George Bush about one thing. The UN is certainly in need of an overhaul. Yet we all know that nasty dudes like Maurice Strong's buddy, Paul A. Volcker, the Former North American Chairman of the Trilateral Commission and Karl Rove's puppet, John Bolton are just going to make matters worse. The same holds true with the turncoat Robert C. Pozen. He now offers advice to Bush on how to fix Social Security simply because I sent him running for cover with my Putnam Investment concerns and the malevolent media control of Global Corporations. Feel free to argue me or act ethically. You choose. I don't care. Franky Boy knows he is way past too late. I am just rubbing his nose it before I talk a lot about him and his failure to uphold the public trust in our old stomping grounds up home. I can't help but wonder how he explained his "Harper is a lapdog for Bush" dogma to Karl Rove and his nasty cohorts. I suspect it was an allowed comment from an insider of the Carlyle Group. Don't you? We all know Stephen Harper would never fit in that group. He is as dumb as a post. All of his successes playing at politicking have just been a matter of luck and playing on the PC and Liberal scandals. Harper is kinda scary to me. He has a truly awful agenda in store for all Canadians like evil old T. Alex Hickman and Johnny Crosbie did for our Newfys.

Sometimes less is more. So in conclusion I will just quote former Inspector General of the DHS Clark Kent Irwin and simply say it would have benefited all if he had taken his own advice way back in November of 2003 when he had an important job.

POGO: "Any advice for your fellow public servants?"

Irwin: "Well, just do your job and let the political chips fall where they may. Unless you're willing to do that, it seems to me you shouldn't take the job in the first place."

What say you?

Cya'll in Court 😊

Dear David:

I want to take this opportunity to thank you for your letter of July 8, 2005 regarding the elections in Canada.

Unfortunately, your situation appears to involve litigation or may require litigation under the judicial system. Members of Congress are precluded from inquiring into matters pending before the courts by provisions of the Constitution that mandate a separation of powers between the Judicial, Executive, and Legislative branches. I feel that my involvement in your present situation may be viewed as an interference in the judicial process.

David, I am sorry that I cannot be of assistance at this time and your correspondence is being returned to you.

Sincerely,

John McCain
